

GOURMET FOOD TOUR IN CENTRAL PARIS

INCLUDED IN THE PACKAGE

Walk into gourmet Paris during this 2 hours and a half tour in Les Halles-Montorgueil area. The place that we also call "The Belly of Paris" (according to a novel by Emile Zola in 1873) offers many attractions: old shops (including the oldest pastry shop in Paris, Stohrer), French brasseries and traditional restaurants, but also gourmet specialty shops (kitchen tools, food books etc.). Your guide will introduce and explain the highlights of that famous area.

Les Halles-Montorgueil is also a place with much cultural interest : St. Eustache church, Jean Sans Peur tower, or Le Grand Cerf passage. Let's get through the heart of Paris.

The tour includes several tasting of French traditional products: pastries, bread, cheese, delicatessen and wine.

Departure Time: 9:30 am
